HOW VETERINARIANS CAN CONTRIBUTE TO PUBLIC SAFETY

Without safety for animals & people, there is no health!

- Keep non-accidental injury in your rule-outs
- Recognize abuse & neglect
- Report suspicions
- Keep detailed records
- Take photos of lesions (overall, mid-range, close)
- Track return to health (weight & BCS)
- Be a resource for local police & animal control
- Provide expert witness testimony
- Learn more about family & community violence
- Get to know social service providers in your area
- Foster pets of domestic violence survivors
- Contribute to overall community safety
- Promote kindness
- Share responsible dog ownership practices
- Celebrate the human animal bond
- Safety for all contributes to global health!

Need advice? We are here to help. www.VetInvestigator.com

© Martha Smith-Blackmore, DVM 2020